

CATTARAUGUS COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT

1 Leo Moss Drive, Olean, NY 14760, Tel. (716)373-8050, Fax (716) 701-3737

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Cattaraugus County
Health Department

Established 1923

Kevin D. Watkins, M.D., MPH, Public Health Director

Gilbert N. Witte, M.D.
Medical Director

Colette Lulay-Pound
Administrative Officer

For Immediate Release
November 16, 2020

Cattaraugus County Health Department was notified of twenty additional confirmed cases of COVID-19 residents within Cattaraugus County. The department's active positive COVID-19 caseload is now one hundred and thirty seven as there are four hundred and seventy four residents who have recovered from COVID-19.

The six hundred and fourteenth confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. He recently developed body aches and loss of taste and smell. He was tested for COVID-19 on November 9th and his test results on November 15th indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and fifteenth confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. He reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed congestion, cough, runny nose, sweats, loss of smell. He was tested for COVID-19 on November 14th and his test results on November 15th indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and sixteenth confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. She recently developed fever, chills, headaches, body aches, abdominal discomfort, nausea and vomiting. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and seventeenth confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the northeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. She is a healthcare worker who reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. She recently developed headaches, sore throat, runny nose and fatigue. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and eighteenth confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the northeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. She is a healthcare worker who recently developed loss of taste and smell. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 7th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

For Immediate Release
November 16, 2020

The six hundred and nineteenth confirmed case is a female resident who reside in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. She recently developed fever, sinusitis, chills, and headaches. She was tested for COVID-19 on November 11th and her test results on November 15th indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twentieth confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. He recently developed cough, congestion, headaches and fatigue. He was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and his test results indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty first confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. He recently developed cough, congestion, sore throat, headaches and body aches. He was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 15th and his test results indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty second confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. He reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed cough, chills, sore throat, headaches and body aches. He was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 15th and his test results indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty third confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. He reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed cough, chills, sore throat, headaches, body aches, and loss of taste and smell. He was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 15th and his test results indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty fourth confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. He reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed cough, chills, sore throat, headaches and body aches. He was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 15th and his test results indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty fifth confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the southwest quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. She recently developed fever, cough, headaches, and body aches. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

For Immediate Release
November 16, 2020

The six hundred and twenty sixth confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. He reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed cough, congestion, headaches, body aches and loss of taste and smell. He was tested for COVID-19 on November 13th and his test results on November 15th indicated that he was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty seventh confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history or being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. She was recently hospitalized for a fall, and was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty eighth confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. She reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed fever, cough, and headaches. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and twenty ninth confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. She reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed fever, and headaches. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and thirtieth and thirty first confirmed cases are two residents who reside in the southeast quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. They reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed cough, sweats, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, and fatigue. They were given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and their test results indicated that they were positive for the virus.

The six hundred and thirty second confirmed case is a female resident who resides in the northwest quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. She is a healthcare worker who reports being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person and recently developed fever, chills, headaches, loss of appetite and fatigue. She was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and her test results indicated that she was positive for the virus.

The six hundred and thirty third confirmed case is a male resident who resides in the northwest quadrant of the county, who denies any significant travel history. He is a healthcare worker who denies being in direct contact with a positive COVID-19 person. He recently developed fever, congestion, diarrhea, body aches and fatigue. He was given a rapid test for COVID-19 on November 16th and his test results indicated that he was positive for the virus.

Finally, in an effort to determine the prevalence of COVID-19 in our community, any resident interested in getting tested, can register for a test at www.cattco.org/covid-19-test or call 716-938-9119 or 716-938-2265.